At The Masters Hands Massage you will only receive massage therapy from federally or nationally licensed massage therapists, we DO NOT employ unlicensed massage therapists. A licensed massage therapist does NOT diagnose illness, disease, or other physical or mental disorders. They also do NOT prescribe medical treatment or pharmaceuticals, nor do they perform spinal manipulations. Information exchanged during any session is confidential and will not be shared or released without your written consent or a court order.

I affirm I have stated ALL my medical conditions to the best of my knowledge, and I will NOT hold The Masters Hands Massage, Bella Piel Spa, or the massage therapist Mireya Chapa-Gauthier liable, therefore, I understand that massage therapy is for the purpose of stress reduction, relief of muscular tension or spasm, for increasing circulation and energy and is NOT medical or chiropractic care.

The undersigned does hereby release The Masters Hands Massage, and or the massage therapist of any and all liability pertaining to any present or future physical or mental conditions that I may have.

Please note: At The Masters Hands Massage, inappropriate action, language, sexual misconduct or sexual harassment is NOT tolerated and is cause for immediate termination of services with no refund. The Masters Hands Massage, Bella Piel Spa and Mireya Chapa-Gauthier reserves the right to refuse services to anyone. In addition if the client or the therapist is uncomfortable for any reason, either the client or the therapist may ask to cease the massage at any time and the massage session will be ended immediately.

Due to being a small business, there is absolutely no refunds on any massage services or purchased items. I also understand 24 hour notice by phone or text message is needed for any cancellations or reschedules otherwise I will be charged a $10 fee on my next visit. This includes if I fail to call or show up as well, and I also understand e-mail is not an acceptable way to cancel or reschedule.

In addition, I give my permission to The Masters Hands Massage, Bella Piel Spa and Mireya Chapa-Gauthier to communicate with me through forms of phone calls, text messaging, e-mails and direct mail.

I have read and understood this intake form and have answered truthfully to the best of my knowledge.
